CAUTION

On Friday, April 11, 2014, at approximately 2:30 p.m., the Dairy State Bank located at 103 Third Street in Haugen, Wisconsin, was robbed. The suspect entered the bank and told a teller to “get all your money” as he approached the teller’s window. The suspect then jumped up on the counter, had two tellers empty their top and bottom drawers into a long white pillow case. When a person entered the bank, the suspect told her to “get on the ground, this is a robbery”. The suspect then said “show me the vault”, and then once in the vault he took all the money. The suspect then asked for the keys to a "black car", and took the keys and left through the back door.

SHOULD BE CONSIDERED ARMED AND DANGEROUS
