

WANTED BY THE FBI

Houston, Texas
November 9, 2012

UNKNOWN BANK ROBBER

DESCRIPTION

Vehicle Information: The two bank robbers were dropped off and picked up by a third man in a dark-colored Toyota or a Honda sedan.

Weapon Used: Two of the robbers were armed with pistols.

CAUTION

At approximately 3:40 p.m., two of the men, both armed with pistols, entered the Woodforest National Bank and demanded cash. After receiving some cash from bank employees, the men exited the Walmart and left the area. No one was physically hurt during the robbery. The first bank robber was described as a black male, in his mid-twenties, about 5'10", 200 pounds, with a dark complexion. He wore sunglasses, a dark long-sleeved shirt and a checkered black and white bandana on his head. The second bank robber was described as a black male, in his early twenties, 5'6", 150 pounds, with a light complexion. He wore a gray T-shirt with a black long-sleeved shirt underneath, a large camouflage sun hat, and sunglasses.

SHOULD BE CONSIDERED ARMED AND DANGEROUS
