Shaler, Pennsylvania
August 28, 2013

UNKNOWN BANK ROBBER

DESCRIPTION

Sex: Male

Weapon Used: Unknown at this time

CAUTION

Shaler Township police and the FBI are searching for two masked men who robbed the Allegheny Valley Bank in the 900 block of Mt. Royal Boulevard on August 28, 2013. The robbery happened around 10:00 a.m. when two masked men wearing gloves entered through a rear door and ordered the staff to the floor. One male vaulted the teller cage and retrieved cash from the teller drawers while the second male brandished a weapon. They were described as White, between 5 feet 7 inches and 5 feet 8 inches tall. One man had a thin-to-medium build and was wearing a white shirt. The other had a medium-to-heavy build and was wearing gray sweatpants and a dark shirt. A witness reported seeing a white sedan with out-of-state plates, possibly Michigan, leaving the scene shortly after the robbery.
