UNKNOWN BANK ROBBER

DESCRIPTION

Sex: Male

Race: Black

Age: 30 to 40 years old

Remarks: He wore a dark jacket, yellow baseball cap with a logo on it, and dark eye glasses.

Weapon Used: Silver handgun

CAUTION

On September 23, 2013, at 12:09 p.m., City of Pittsburgh Bureau of Police, Zone 5, responded to the PNC Bank located in the 4000 block of Liberty Avenue, for a robbery in progress. Zone 5 Units and Supervisors arrived on scene and the suspect was gone on arrival. It was reported that a Black male between 30 and 40 years old, wearing a dark jacket, a yellow baseball cap with a logo on it, and dark eye glasses came up to the teller window and placed a black zip-up folder on the counter. The suspect then opened the folder and displayed a silver handgun that was pointed at the employee. The suspect then allegedly said to the employee, "Do not press any buttons and give me the money in the top drawer". The employee further reported that she gave over the money and after that the suspect allegedly said, "Now you can press any buttons you want after I leave." The suspect left the bank on foot and turned onto Liberty Avenue and then onto Edmond Street. The employee reported that the suspect never touched the gun, just showed it to her in the folder. The suspect fled with an undisclosed amount of United States Currency.
