CAUTION

On December 6, 2013, before 8:00 am, two Loomis messengers were conducting business on the University of Houston campus, 4800 Calhoun, Houston, Texas. One of the messengers was outside of the vehicle, when an armed robber approached the female driver and ordered her out of the reinforced armored van at gunpoint. When the driver exited the van, the armed robber drove off with the reinforced armored van and the cash inside. During the take-away robbery, the second messenger fired a gunshot at the armored robber. No injuries were reported during the incident. The reinforced armored van was recovered nearby inside a parking garage on campus. Cash was missing from the van. However, some cash remained inside the vehicle.

SHOULD BE CONSIDERED ARMED AND DANGEROUS
