

WANTED BY THE FBI

Sandston, Virginia
February 14, 2014

UNKNOWN BANK ROBBERS

DESCRIPTION

Sex: Male

Race: Two Black, Two Unknown

Remarks: The subjects utilized items to either disguise or cover their heads.

Vehicle Information: Green Nissan X-Terra, later recovered.

Weapon Used: Handguns were displayed and fired during the commission of the robbery.

CAUTION

On February 14, 2014, four male subjects robbed the C&F Bank in Sandston, Virginia. Surveillance video shows the males exiting a green Nissan X-Terra prior to the robbery, with weapons drawn. Once inside the bank, one male advanced towards an office, another took an employee to the vault, and the remaining two jumped over the teller counter. After taking money from multiple drawers, the subjects began to exit the bank, and, as doing so, one of the robbers fired his weapon towards the ceiling. Having locked themselves out of the X-Terra, the subjects were forced to smash the driver's side window to gain entry and leave the premises.
