CAUTION

On June 10, 2014, an unknown white male suspect robbed the Iberia Bank at 6420 South University Avenue in Little Rock, Arkansas. The unknown suspect entered the bank and made an oral demand to the teller for cash. The suspect threatened to blow up the bank if his demands were not met. The suspect was given the money and he placed it in a plastic bag that he brought with him which he put in his pocket, and then he left the bank. The suspect was seen walking to a nearby car wash, where he got into a waiting automobile, possibly a dark gray 2002 to 2005 Mitsubishi Lancer, that was missing the front passenger hubcap and had an unknown license plate in the front. The suspect then left the area.
