CAUTION

On Friday, May 9, 2014, at approximately 1:54 p.m., the U.S. Bank branch located at 1420 Kettner Blvd. in San Diego, California, was robbed by an unknown male using a demand note. At the time of the robbery, the robber entered the bank, approached the victim teller, and said he wanted to open an account. The robber sat down in a chair and passed a demand note to the victim teller. The note demanded money and stated the robber was armed with a weapon. After receiving a sum of money, the robber exited the bank and fled in an unknown direction. No weapon was displayed and no injuries were reported.
