

WANTED

BY THE FBI

Houston, Texas
October 20, 2014

UNKNOWN ARMORED CAR ROBBERS

DESCRIPTION

Sex: Male

Race: Black

Remarks: One of the robbers wore a red hoodie during the robbery. The second subject wore a gray hoodie.

Weapon Used: One of the subjects carried a two-tone pistol during the robbery.

CAUTION

At about 7:40 a.m., two armed men approached a Loomis guard after conducting business near the intersection of Reed and Cullen Road in Houston, Texas. The armed robbers forced the guard inside the armored car, and took off down the street. Security measures activated prevented the robbers from gaining access to the vehicle's vault. They quickly released the guard, abandoned the vehicle, and they were last seen getting into a light green metallic colored sedan. The armed robbers got away with some cash, but only the cash the guard was carrying at the time of the robbery. The guard was not physically hurt during the robbery.

SHOULD BE CONSIDERED ARMED AND DANGEROUS
