CAUTION

On Monday, February 29, 2016, at approximately 9:00 a.m., the Compass Bank, located at 961 South Santa Fe Road, Vista, California (San Diego County) was robbed by an unknown male. At the time of the robbery the suspect approached the teller and presented a demand note written with a marker pen and demanded a five-figure amount. The teller did not have any money readily available, but did obtain a sum of money and provided the robber with the money. After receiving a sum of money, the suspect exited the bank. No weapon was observed and no injuries reported.
