CAUTION

The FBI is seeking the public's assistance in identifying a man who is suspected of robbing at least two banks in the Bay Area in the last two months. The most recent robbery that the suspect allegedly committed was a "takeover" style robbery at Provident Credit Union, located at 2727 South El Camino Real, San Mateo, California, at approximately 9:45 a.m. on May 12, 2016. The suspect displayed a black revolver and stole an undisclosed amount of money from the bank. The suspect is believed to be the same individual responsible for a bank robbery that took place at the First Republic Bank, located at 2001 Van Ness Avenue, San Francisco, California, on April 22, 2016.

REWARD

The FBI is offering a cash reward of up to $5,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of this unknown individual.
