CAUTION

On June 8, 2015, at approximately 6:20 a.m., two unknown males kidnapped an employee of the FAA Credit Union from her home. The suspects tied the victim up, left the victim's sister in the home, and drove the victim to the credit union in the victim's car. The suspects forced the employee to open the credit union and provide access to cash. The suspects then fled the credit union in the employee's vehicle which was found abandoned a short time later.
