CAUTION

On Monday, September 19, 2016, at approximately 4:04 p.m., the Santander Bank, located at 6 Francis Street, Boston, Massachusetts, was robbed by an unknown male. The suspect entered the bank and passed the teller a note demanding money before fleeing on foot. Approximately 15 minutes prior to this robbery, suspicious activity by the same individual was observed at a nearby Santander Bank, located at 3060 Washington Street, in Boston, Massachusetts. It is believed the same individual is responsible for at least three similar robberies in Massachusetts: Santander Bank, 25 Torrey Street, Brockton on August 8, 2016; Santander Bank, 860 River Street, Boston on August 16, 2016; and Santander Bank, 575 Boylston Street, Boston on September 6, 2016. In three of the robberies, the suspect threatened the teller with a weapon, though no weapon was shown.

Anyone with information should call the FBI Boston Division's Bank Robbery Task Force at 1-617-742-5533.
