CAUTION

On September 23, 2016, at approximately 11:52 a.m., one black male and one light-skinned Black or Hispanic male walked into the Springfield State Bank, both armed and demanded United States currency. The first bank robber, described as a light-skinned Black or Hispanic male, walked behind the teller counter, made contact with one of the victim tellers and had her dump her purse out. The bank robber then filled the purse with United States currency from the teller drawers. The bank robber was described as 5'9" tall, approximately 160 pounds, and in his mid 20s, wearing a black or navy bandana across his face, a red hooded sweatshirt, black gloves, dark pants, and carried a black semi-automatic handgun. The second bank robber was described as a black male approximately 5'10" to 6'0" tall, with a thick build, wearing a tan Carhartt jacket, dark pants, and had a silver revolver handgun. Both robbers fled the bank in a dark colored compact vehicle.
