CAUTION

Investigators believe the same individual is responsible for the following bank robberies. In each instance the unknown suspect would enter the bank, approach the victim teller, and produce a demand note. On several occasions, the subject either threatened he had or produced a handgun.

- September 29, 2017 - Bank of America located at 2 Park Drive in Durham, North Carolina

During this robbery, the subject wore a gray long-sleeved shirt, blue jeans, a "safari"-style hat with a palm tree logo, and black gloves. He also carried a motorcycle helmet.

- October 13, 2017 - 1st Trust Bank located at 271 London Shopping Center in London, Kentucky

During this robbery, the subject wore a camouflage "bush"-style hat, a black long-sleeved shirt, and blue jeans. He also carried a single strap black backpack.

- November 14, 2017 - Virginia Commonwealth Bank located at 900 North Parham Road in Henrico, Virginia

During this robbery, the subject wore a light-colored jacket with black stripes, a camouflage "boonie"-style hat, blue jeans, and black gloves. He carried a small red-and-gray backpack.

- November 17, 2017 - Bank of America located at 107 Muirs Chapel Road in Greensboro, North Carolina

During this robbery, the subject wore jeans, a white-and-purple pinstriped shirt, and a tan baseball cap. He carried a motorcycle helmet and a backpack.

- December 12, 2017 - Wells Fargo Bank located at 1344 North Hershberger Road in Roanoke, Virginia

During this robbery, the subject wore a gray "beanie"-style hat, a black hooded sweatshirt, and a brown jacket.

- January 5, 2018 - the Chase Bank located at 2606 Judson Road in Longview, Texas.

During this robbery, the subject wore a dark hooded sweatshirt, gloves, a blue "toboggan"-style hat, jeans, and white shoes.
