CAUTION

On May 20, 2019, just before closing, an unknown male subject entered the Call Federal Credit Union located in the 3600 block of Call Federal Drive in Midlothian, Virginia. The subject approached the victim teller, produced a threatening note, and demanded money. The subject then pulled out a handgun and initially ordered all of the credit union employees and customers to the lobby area, where he insisted they get on their knees.

The subject then forced everyone to the back of the bank, where he instructed the manager to place additional money in a gray and red backpack he was carrying. Prior to leaving the bank, the subject took cell phones from the victims.

REWARD

The FBI is offering a reward of up to $10,000 for information that leads to the arrest and conviction of this armed subject.
